PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE
by Peggy Hall, EA

If you are not signed up for TAX TALK, what are you waiting for? You cannot go wrong by attending. It is quality education at the right time and the right price.

I am so happy to be a part of EBAEA. Our Chapter is the best! Our Members are powerful, talented, dedicated, generous, fun, creative, and supportive. If you haven’t been to a dinner meeting lately, please come. You will be pleasantly surprised, as we have worked on becoming more open, informative and fun!

Thank you to all who filled out the Public Relations survey. This is very important to our developing a successful campaign. Speaking of PR, I have found out how empowering it is to tell people I am an Enrolled Agent. I used to be lazy and tell people that I am a tax professional. In the last 2 months I have explained “Enrolled Agent” to at least fifty people. If all of us do the same we definitely are working toward Our Big Hairy Audacious Goal, making the Enrolled Agent the tax professional of choice. Do not forget to use the back of your business card to explain that Enrolled Agents do CPR—Consultation, Preparation and Representation.

Have you volunteered for VITA? It is educational and rewarding. It is in January so it does not interfere with Tax Season. Please read the article in this issue and contact Brian Pon, EA (415) 924-1091 for information and to volunteer. He does it every year. This is a great way to help low-income people, especially in these hard economic times.

With the holidays coming I want to invite you to volunteer with me for “Holiday Helper Warehouse.” It is so much fun! I guarantee if you volunteer one year you will be back the next year. It entails a commitment of 2 hours on December 11, 12, 15, or 16. Let me know and I will email you the information. Also, Joanne Anderson, EA collects toys (Toys for Tots) each year. Bring an unwrapped gift to the December meeting. You are given a raffle ticket for each toy you bring.

Our speaker last month was fantastic. He introduced us to a lot of International Tax Issues, and gave us contact phone numbers for questions. There is so much happening and it is good to know the IRS is going after the “bad guys,” the IRS knows the “dirty little secrets.”

Have a productive, relaxing holiday season, but get involved with EBAEA. We still need volunteers to help with Public Information Awareness, bulletin content, website content and membership. You can help with only one hour of your time. Our chapter is thriving but there is so much more we want to accomplish. I have to give a big thank you to both Cherry Comstock and Patty Pringle for the work they have been doing for our Chapter. It truly is inspiring to witness their energy and willingness to work.

See you at Tax Talk!

PIA PUBLIC RELATIONS PROJECT
By Don Wayne, 2nd Vice President

The new public relations program goal is, “To enhance the visibility, recognition and preferred acceptance of EAs, Enrolled Agents as ‘THE Tax Professionals’ and to promote CSEA/EBAEA Members to the general public.”

We have hired Trezek Public Relations to help us achieve our goal. As a first step, Trezek Public Relations will submit a proposal for a public awareness/branding plan outlining the elements of a sustained campaign to be implemented over a period of 12-18 months. In discussion with Peggy Hall EA, Lonnie Gary EA, Don Wayne EA, and Trezek Public Relations, it was agreed that the basis of the plan would benefit from the development of a brief survey of the EBAEA membership. The Board of Directors approved the survey draft at our October 15 Board meeting. Thanks to the efforts of Cherry Comstock and the Chapter office, the survey was distributed to all EBAEA members during the week of October 20.

Your prompt response to the survey will be greatly appreciated. It will help the PR plan development so that we can implement it in time for the upcoming tax season. Please contact Don Wayne at (925) 472-0990, or Don@DonWayne.com if you have not received your survey.

TAXES AND...CANCER?
By George Crozier, EA

(Editors Note: This is a very unusual topic for our newsletter, but it is something we all need to address. Special thanks to George for both coming forward with his story, and for showing us that sometimes, all we have to fear is fear itself.)

Last December my PSA got a bit high so it was rechecked in June. High again, so a needle biopsy was ordered. The results showed a fairly early stage of Prostate Cancer. Now I had to decide what to do about it. A relatively new procedure is a Robot Assisted Laparoscopic Prostatectomy (RALP) that uses a computer operated set of robot arms to hold the surgical instruments, including high definition 3D camera. The surgeon sits in what looks like a video game console in the corner of the room and operates the instruments from there.

On October 1 I had the procedure and spent just one night in the hospital. I came home with four tiny incisions and one slightly larger one. I generally handle things well, so my outcome my not be typical. I quit pain medications on 10/4. I had a catheter until 10/13, so I could not drive until then. On 10/6, my wife took me to work and I spent the day finishing up extensions and continued to come in all week for half to full days. The abdominal pain is little more than doing a couple of extra sit-ups. There is very minimal bruising. I am just totally amazed at this wonderful new procedure. As with any diagnosis of cancer, there is still a concern that we didn't get all of it, but the outlook seems very positive.

I have learned a great deal more about this disease and I think that education really helped my positive outlook on how it would progress. If anyone should have any questions about what I went through, I am more than happy to share the new knowledge and experiences I have acquired. For more information on the procedure go to http://www.davinciprostatectomy.com. I am at (510) 657-0574 or George@TaxRelatedServices.com.

THE TAXBOOK SPECIAL EBAEA PRICING
by Ken Seamann, EA

All those who have patiently been waiting for The TaxBook order form can now relax – it’s at the end of this Bulletin. The TaxBook people are offering a huge EBAEA discount on all books and CDs when I send in our orders together. They will be shipped to me and then be made available at the January and February Chapter meetings. On top of all that, for every book and CD purchased, they will donate $5 to EBAEA so we can pass that on to the CSEA Scholarship Fund. See the end of the Bulletin for the order form.

All orders for the group discount are due to Ken Seamann by NOON on Thursday, November 13. Please contact Ken at 925-634-8297 (voice) 925-634-1093 (fax) or ken@Seamann.com. Any orders placed directly with The Taxbook will either be sent back to me or will not receive the discount.

NEW QUICKFINDERS AVAILABLE
by Diann Gross, EA

Attached is an updated order form which includes the new Premium Quickfinder Handbook and the new California Tax Quickfinder Handbook. CONTINUING ED MYSTERY SOLVED by Joanne Anderson, EA, Continuing Ed chair

Each month at our dinner meetings we receive 1 hour of CE and at our TaxTalk seminar we get 24 hours of CE. This process is rather time consuming and I would like to explain to the membership what is involved.

1. I have to get CTEC numbers from CSEA.
2. I make CE forms for the attendees signed as verified by my signature.
3. The registration list is faxed to me and as attendees enter they are checked off.
4. CE forms and Speaker evaluations are distributed at the dinner meetings.
5. At the end of the meeting these forms are collected.
6. At my office I prepare the information to be sent to CSEA. There are 5 forms that must be filled and sent. The list and completed CE forms are banded ready to mail. Speaker evaluations are also banded and also ready to mail to CSEA. A Speaker Evaluation Summary is prepared and sent with all the required forms. All these forms and copies are sent to CSEA within ten days of our meeting. The same process is done for our mini-seminars and TaxTalk seminar.

BREACKFAST MEETINGS – WHY BOTHER?

by Ken Seamann, EA

The Brentwood (East County) Area EA Group meets at the Brentwood Café, 8500 Brentwood Blvd, Brentwood, every Friday morning at 8am for breakfast. The Brentwood Café is an old-style country café that has been a Brentwood landmark for many, many years.

I have been attending these meetings for about 17 years and was invited to participate by EAs that had been attending before me, many of whom still participate. The food is good and inexpensive, and the staff is happy to see us every Friday – they keep an area in a back room reserved for us every week.

Attendance at these meetings may vary from 1 or 2 to 10 or more. While this is an EA group, we have a couple of CPAs in regular attendance. A longtime CPA and tax instructor, Phil Storrer, is often in another breakfast meeting there and pipes in every so often.

This is all very informal. We normally don’t have a set agenda, but keep an open format, where anyone is welcome to raise a question or present a scenario, and everyone else throws in their input. We may throw a topic out via email prior to the meeting, so that everyone comes prepared. These are often quite heated debates that everyone benefits from. It is not unusual for other customers to ask a question if they are so inclined or interested in the subject. (I guess I would have to say that this most resembles the Old General Store discussions around the potbellied stove. Does that date me?)

Topics for discussion can be from a wide range of subjects: taxpayer situations, pending tax legislation, interpretation of rulings, audits, practice management, deadlines, how-to’s, the weather, local politics & events, & Highway 4 Bypass construction & EBart.

An offshoot of this is that we are quite willing to call and ask each other for help, without having to resort to a costly outside service. Whereas we may not have individually encountered a particular situation, quite often someone in the group has. We quite freely ask for and accept feedback from each other. We have a lively exchange of information via email many times a day. This effectively gives us a “Big Office” comfort and feel when we need it.

We have made this exchange available to other EAs on a limited basis. All we ask is that you come and attend a breakfast meeting with us first, then we’ll enter you on the recipient list if you wish. Be forewarned that it can become quite consuming!!! While this may be unique and not work for everyone, I urge each area to reactivate your breakfast meeting. It is quite rewarding. Contact me at 925-634-8297 for further information.

HM MMMMM... The top 5% of US taxpayers have AGIs of at least $153,542. This group pays 60% of all federal income taxes paid by individuals. (Tax Foundation, IRS)

The eventual cost to taxpayers of the Resolution Trust Corporation (aka RTC, which ran from 1989-95) was $120-140 billion, more than 70% LESS than the original $500 billion cost estimate. The RTC was created to sell real estate assets from failed savings and loans. Sound familiar? (NY Times, Denver Post)

The top 1% of US taxpayers is responsible for the payment of 40% of all federal income tax. Ten years ago (1998) the top 1% of taxpayers paid 35% of all federal income tax. Twenty years ago (1988), the top 1% of taxpayers paid 28% of all federal income tax. (IRS)

4) All notices must be submitted (and payment received) by the 25th of the month prior to initial publication. Send the desired text to: bulletin@ebaea.org

PUBLIC INFORMATION AWARENESS
By Don Wayne, 2nd Vice President
Public Information Awareness (PIA) Objective: To enhance the visibility and recognition of Enrolled Agents as “The Tax Professional”

Dagmar Bedard, our Chapter PIA Chair, has stepped down due health concerns with a member of her family. I am looking for a few volunteers to assist in our Chapter’s PIA efforts for this coming year.

We will be working to get our message out to the general public, to students, and to other professional associations throughout the areas we serve.

Skills in speaking, writing, or editing would be useful but not required.

For more information or to volunteer for the Committee, please contact me at (925) 472-0990 or Don@DonWayne.com. (You might just have fun!)
VOLUNTEER INCOME TAX ASSISTANCE

By Brian Pon, EA, VITA Coordinator

Do EAs have a higher purpose than other tax professionals? Because our tax designation is conferred by the U.S. Treasury, a part of me has always felt that EAs have a dual mandate of educating the public about tax and of making sure that all tax returns are filed, even for those that we cannot serve.

I have volunteered for VITA for the past four years, and it is the most satisfying way that I can support my community as an Enrolled Agent.

VITA provides free tax preparation for low-income individuals that would not typically seek out a qualified tax preparer. Many of these individuals would not file their tax returns, unknowingly missing out on earned income tax credit or refundable child tax credits. VITA offices are trained and staffed by volunteers, and we need your help.

If you or one of your staff members might be interested in volunteering to train community volunteers to prepare basic returns or in spending a few hours in a VITA office, please contact me at (415) 924-1091.

HUMOR

The more you earn, the less you keep,
And now I lay me down to sleep.
I pray the Lord my soul to take,
If the tax collector hasn't got it before I wake. ~Ogden Nash

While walking down the street one day a US senator is tragically hit by a truck and dies. His soul arrives in heaven and is met by St. Peter at the entrance. "Welcome to heaven," says St. Peter. "Before you settle in, it seems there is a problem. We seldom see a high official around these parts, you see, so we're not sure what to do with you."

"No problem, just let me in," says the man.
"Well, I'd like to, but I have orders from higher up. We'll have you spend one day in hell and one in heaven. Then you can choose where to spend eternity."
"Really, I've made up my mind. I want to be in heaven," says the senator.
"I'm sorry, but we have our rules." And with that, St. Peter escorts him to the elevator and he goes down, down, down to hell. The doors open and he finds himself in the middle of a green golf course. In the distance is a clubhouse and standing in front of it are all the friends and other politicians who had worked with him. Everyone is very happy and in evening dress. They run to greet him, shake his hand, and reminisce about the good times they had while getting rich at the expense of the people. They play a friendly game of golf and then dine on lobster, caviar and champagne. Also present is the devil, who really is a very friendly guy who has a good time dancing and telling jokes. They are having such a good time that before he realizes it, it is time to go. Everyone gives him a hearty farewell and waves while the elevator rises. The elevator goes up, up, up and the door reopens on heaven where St. Peter is waiting for him. "Now it's time to visit heaven."

So, 24 hours pass with the senator joining a group of contented souls moving from cloud to cloud, playing the harp and singing. They have a good time and, before he realizes it, the 24 hours have gone by and St. Peter returns. "Well, then, you've spent a day in hell and another in heaven. Now choose your eternity."

The senator reflects for a minute, then he answers: "Well, I would never have said it before, but I mean heaven has been delightful, but I think I would be better off in hell."

So St. Peter escorts him to the elevator and he goes down, down, down to hell. Now the doors of the elevator open and he's in the middle of a barren land covered with waste and garbage. He sees all his friends, dressed in rags, picking up the trash and putting it in black bags as more trash falls from above. The devil comes over to him and puts his arm around his shoulder.

"I don't understand," stammers the senator.
"Yesterday I was here and there was a golf course and clubhouse, and we ate lobster and caviar, drank champagne, and danced and had a great time. Now there's just a wasteland full of garbage and my friends look miserable. What happened?"

The devil looks at him, smiles and says, "Yesterday we were campaigning... Today you voted."
